

Goldcrest

One of the smallest birds in the country

Greenfinch

Look out for this beautiful finch at bird feeders!

Chaffinch

The most widespread bird in the UK

Did you know?

King James I had a menagerie in St James's Park, this is now called Birdcage Walk.

Great Tit

They have a distinctive two note alarm call.

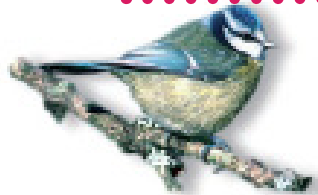

Birds in the Royal Parks

LET'S GO ON A BIRD HUNT!

Blue Tit

They'll use any suitable sized hole to nest in; even in lamp posts!

Robin

Often called the 'gardeners friend' for their habit of hopping around on freshly dug ground.

Blackbird

Listen out for male blackbirds singing during the hours of darkness.

Parakeets

New birds on the block, Parakeets have gradually been spreading through the UK.

